Traditional EdChoice and Cleveland Scholarship applicants qualify for low income status if income is at or below 200% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines. Note that first-time applicants for EdChoice-Expansion are eligible for scholarships if income is at or below 250% of poverty. However, only scholarship families with a household gross income of 200% or lower qualify for low-income status. This means that the private school cannot charge these families for any tuition that is not covered by the scholarship. Scholarship families with a household gross income of 201% or higher are responsible for paying any tuition difference not covered by the scholarship. This chart will help you determine if you may qualify.

Income status determines priority for awarding scholarships. It also determines if your family will be responsible for paying any tuition that is not covered by the scholarship.

Based on the number of people in your household, you may qualify for low income status if your gross annual income is the amount listed on the chart or less.

Household size is determined by the following: the scholarship student, the birth mother or the legal guardian of the scholarship student, the spouse (also includes birth father of any child in the household), all children under the age of 18 which the legal guardian or spouse also has legal custody.
